About Maureen

Maureen Kures is on a mission to inspire millions of families to start candid conversations about death while they can still influence what happens before they go. The stories she shares from shifts working as an oncology, hospice and ICU nurse are poignant and powerful and will encourage listeners to get their wishes documented and discussed right now. This kind of empowerment can be a gift for every member of the family and be the vehicle to side step costly conflicts before relationships are forever fractured.

Whether families engage with Maureen for facilitated family discussions or join one of her leverage group training one thing is certain, the end-of-life conversation will start and come to a winning conclusion.

Praise

Maureen elevated my Podcast episode by bringing a positive and loving energy to a difficult topic...death, and how to get the family talking about it. I look forward to inviting Maureen to be on my show again and again.
